LIKE WOW. LIKE CHECK OUT THE ACTIVITY!

Homecoming week was filled with all kinds of fun and excitement. The five days between October fifth through the tenth, allowed everyone a chance to be cool and act abnormal. During lunch time, participants from each class competed in various whacky contests. Monday involved the banana stuff, with the mouse pile-up, egg-toss, twinkie-stuff, and the gum-in-the-whipcream filling the following days. The exciting week ended with an awesome pep assembly. A few brave souls from the Homecoming Court were challenged in various contests that added to the week of fun.

WOW. HERE COME THE FLOATS!

"Dreams" was chosen as this year's Homecoming theme. Each class displayed its interpretation on the individual floats. Great amounts of time and effort were put forth in their design. During the parade, everyone had a chance to see the clever results. This year, the following homes were used as construction sites: Seniors, Wendy Cheff's; Juniors, Kim Foster's; Sophomore's, Rachael Antonini's; Freshmen, Shari Reitman's. The juniors swept the first place slot, while the seniors took second. Sophomores came in third, followed by the freshmen.

CATCH THE BEAT

The 1987 Homecoming dance was a great success. The commons area was beautifully decorated to carry out the theme of "Dreams". A capacity crowd of happy students danced to the sounds of favorite records. Adding to the glow of this special evening was the sweet smell of victory from the previous night's football game against Grand Haven. It was a perfect ending to a perfect week.

CHRISTMAS WEEK PUTS JOJO IN EVERYONE'S JAMS!

East Kentwood students raised close to $800 during Christmas Week. The proceeds were donated to Capital Lunch and Toys-For-Tots. Activities included Lovely Legs Day, Hug Day, Clash and Shades Day, Santa's Elves Day, and Red and Green Day. Pictures with Santa were taken at lunch-time and a chain-link competition was held along with the traditional lunchtime activities. These included the Ice Cream Stuff, Face Make-up Contest, Candy Cane Relay, Egg Nog Guzzle, and the Popcorn Stringing Contest. Class competitions were held throughout the week to determine who had the most Christmas spirit. The seniors, unsurprisingly, won in all the categories. The week concluded with the annual Christmas assembly, and everybody headed for two weeks of well-deserved vacation.

THE "ODD COUPLE" MAKES A SPLASH!

This year's full play was the popular female version of Neil Simon's "The Odd Couple." The cast portrayed the characters brilliantly. Daniel Fortin, who played the role, (Olive Hudson, and Rocky Sandman, who played the prize and proper Florence Jager, were very entertaining. Everyone seemed to enjoy the costume brothers, (Sam Holman and Chris Bosley did a superb job of portraying Martin Garbus and Sam Garbus, (also using the picture women) dressed in custom production.

CUPID SURFS THE NIGHT AWAY WITH SWEETHEART

The Sweetheart Dance created a fun-filled atmosphere for a large turnout to enjoy. The music was supplied by Music Connections. With every Sweetheart dance, a court is elected by the senior guys. The 1987 court consisted of Julie Chesnover, Beth Fleminger, Kerri Kodish, Melissa Leech, and Laura Waugh. Kerri Kodish was nominated as Sweetheart Queen.

STUDENT COUNCIL HEATS THINGS UP

The Student Council organized many activities and fund raisers this year. They organized such activities as Homecoming Week, which includes the parade, post game, lunchtime activities, and the dance. Christmas Week proved to be very successful again this year. More than $600 was raised for charity! Other non-fundraising activities included Parent Exchange Day, Athlete of the Month, Student of the Month, which has now been changed to "Fabulous Falcons #1 Club", and School Beautification. Besides all these activities, Student Council gets the opportunity to learn about time-management, responsibility, organization, leadership, roll playing, and trust.

DEBATE TEAM SETS NEW RECORD

The Varsity Debate Team had a very impressive season this year. They placed 16th in the State and beat Birmingham Seaholm, which was the highlight of the season.

The Varsity debaters this year were Kevin Holland, Rich Matthes, Molly Miles, and Kim Ensing. Kevin Holland and Molly Miles both received speaker awards at the Claypot Tournament, held at Central Michigan University.

A great accomplishment this year was when the novice team (Todd Almassin, Kim Ensing, Max Marquez, and Eric Zbikowski) qualified for State, thus setting a new record as the first novice team in E.K. history to qualify for the State Debate Tournament.

AN AWESOME YEAR FOR FORENSICS

This year the Forensics team met during fifth hour. The new members had no idea what exactly went on in this class, but they soon learned and loved the competing. The categories they competed in this year were Dramatic Duo, Storytelling, Humorous, Sales, Radio Broadcasting, Oratory, Prose Poetry, and Dramatic Interpretation. At the third meet at Kalamazoo Loy Norrix, Nancy Williamson took third in Sales and Todd Almassian took second in Oratory. The Invitationals held in Grand Haven brought awards to Shannon Stewart and Ingrid Huiber, who took first in Duo, as well as Michelle Fox, who took second in Oratory, and Terisha Struik, who took third in Storytelling. The climax of the year was at Regionals held at East Grand Rapids High School. Ten qualified to go, and from that Michelle Fox and Terisha Struik qualified for the State meet. Todd Almassian was an alternate.

The Skyliner Yearbook sales got off to a slow start this year, but the staff pulled together and sold the thousand books needed.

We were even able to do the Senior section in color again and an added bonus is the Senior Mock Elections. They will be published again after an absence of one year.

There are many jobs that must be completed for a successful yearbook to be completed, including photography, lay-outs, advertising sales, artwork, writing, selling the book, and planning and designing the whole book in order to meet strict deadlines. The staff members are listed on the last page of the book along with their credits.

Mr. Dirk Nebbeling, advisor for the yearbook class, said that he felt this was one of the best staffs he has had in more than twenty years.

FALCON'S VIEW CATCHES THE WAVE

This year's Falcon's View had 17 members on the staff. The staff tried a new approach to assigning jobs this year. They had co-editors for every job. The Editor-in-Chief position was shared by Cori Babcock and Stephanie Overla. Their adviser was Carolyn Spangler.

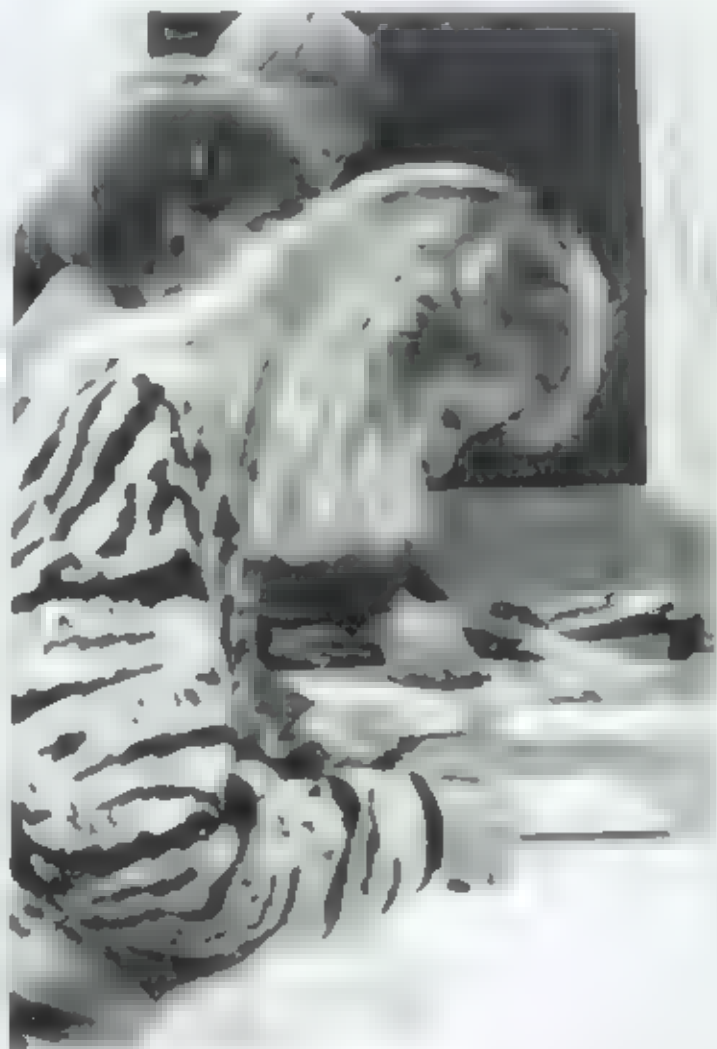

To save money, they returned to typing their stories on the computer instead of having them set by the printer. Some of the fundraisers they had were the Soc Hop dance and a candy sale.

LANGUAGE CLUBS ENJOY ACTIVITIES

THE SPANISH CLUB- The 1986-87 Spanish Club had a very enjoyable year. They sponsored many activities including dances and went to a Spanish restaurant for dinner. To help raise money for their group, they sold M&M's and many other baked goods. The sponsor of the club this year was Mr. Matt Anderson.

THE LATIN CLUB- The Latin Club also enjoyed their year! They participated in many activities, such as visiting museums, and they participated in the M&M candy selling also. The sponsor of the club was Mrs. Dorlene Helzer.

SHAKESPEARE CLUB EXPERIENCES ACTIVE YEAR

This was another great year for the Shakespeare Club. They were very active. The club made two trips to Stratford, Canada. The plays they saw this year were "Cymbeline" and "Troilus and Cressida." In addition, they saw several other plays locally.

The club had several fund-raisers, including a candy sale and button sale. They also joined with the Art Club to sponsor a Halloween Dance and participated in the Homecoming Parade. This year they celebrated William Shakespeare's birthday with cake and birthday wishes.

Every year the club sets aside $300 to do whatever they want. This year they decided to use it for a scholarship program, which is only for Senior members. They are chosen on the basis of service to the club. Mrs. Elsie Purvins and Mr. Mike Bacon were the sponsors.

ART CLUB "ALIVE & WELL"

The Art Club consisted of about 10 to 15 active members. The officers this year were Kelli Hallifax (President), David Huang (Vice-President), and Lisa Kimmer (Treasurer).

The Club worked on many fund-raising projects. They held a Halloween Dance with the Shakespeare Club. They also had bake sales. In addition, the Club worked on props and costumes for the Faculty Follies. During Easter, they sold Easter Eggs with surprises in them. They also marched in the Homecoming parade and took a field trip.

This was the second year for the Art Club. This year the club wasn't as "eventful" as last year. Mrs. McClenathan commented, "We are a small group of people; but because we are enthusiastic and involved, the Art club is "alive and well."

CLOSE UP ENJOYS WEEK IN D.C.

On May 3, 1987, six students (Tina Jensen, Karen Timm, Ann Mary Quarrandillo, Stacey Francis, Sharon Rahamin, and Kris Wildeboer) and their teacher (Mr. Larry VanderStelt) left for Washington, D.C. for a week-long study of our National Government. During this week they would get to meet their Senators, Representatives, and other members of the U.S. Government as well as students from Vermont and Arizona.

The experience was intense yet not all hard work due to several "cultural" activities planned for the students including a tour of the Monuments, Washington, D.C., and the Smithsonian Museums; a pizza night; and a night out at the dinner theatre to see the musical "Showboat".

The group returned on Saturday, May 9, leaving very early in the morning and needing to catch up on their sleep. All-in-all the week was well worth it and if you're interested in attending in 1988 see Mrs. Snow.

LET'S HIT THE SLOPES!

Ski Club had a total of seven trips to Cannonsburg this year. Each member was obligated to purchase a discount card, which enabled them to receive a midweek lift ticket for eight dollars, instead of eleven, and on weekends thirteen dollars instead of fifteen! The early snow in December was great for skiing, but toward the middle of the season it was mostly man-made snow, which was pretty slick. All in all, it was another terrific year for the skiers. The ski club advisors this year were Nadia DuBois and Jerry VanDusen.

The face is no problem!

Are we great or what?!

Those slopes are one major cheerie trip to the Twilight Zone!

Looks like they hit the Cantina.

JAZZ BAND

The 1987 Jazz Band participated in several exciting events. Such adventures included pep assemblies, Montage, Festival '87, Christmas assembly, 8th grade orientation, Michigan Athletic Directors Association Convention, and the Michigan Reading Teachers/Gifted and Talented Convention. Throughout the action-packed year, the band also performed at two colleges, Western and Grand Valley. Western was where Becky Sundman received the Outstanding Vocalist award, Dean Rodriguez - Outstanding Rhythm Player, and Dave Tamburillo - Outstanding Soloist. Secondly, at Grand Valley, Greg Wilt received an Outstanding Award and the band was selected Best Band. Finally, another Fabulous Soloist Award went to senior Joe Stretch. Thanks to their sensational director, Mark Dievendorf, the Jazz Band had a great year.

MARCHING BAND IS THE BEST

The 1986-87 Marching Band had an exciting year. They did everything from marching in the mud at Rockford to being selected as the best band at the Celebration on the Grand Parade where they won five hundred dollars.

The highlight of the Marching Band season was their performance at the Cavakade of Bands which was held at Western Michigan University. According to the Director, Mark Dievendorf, "This was a most difficult show and we were very successful with it"

FRESH BAND TRYING HARD.

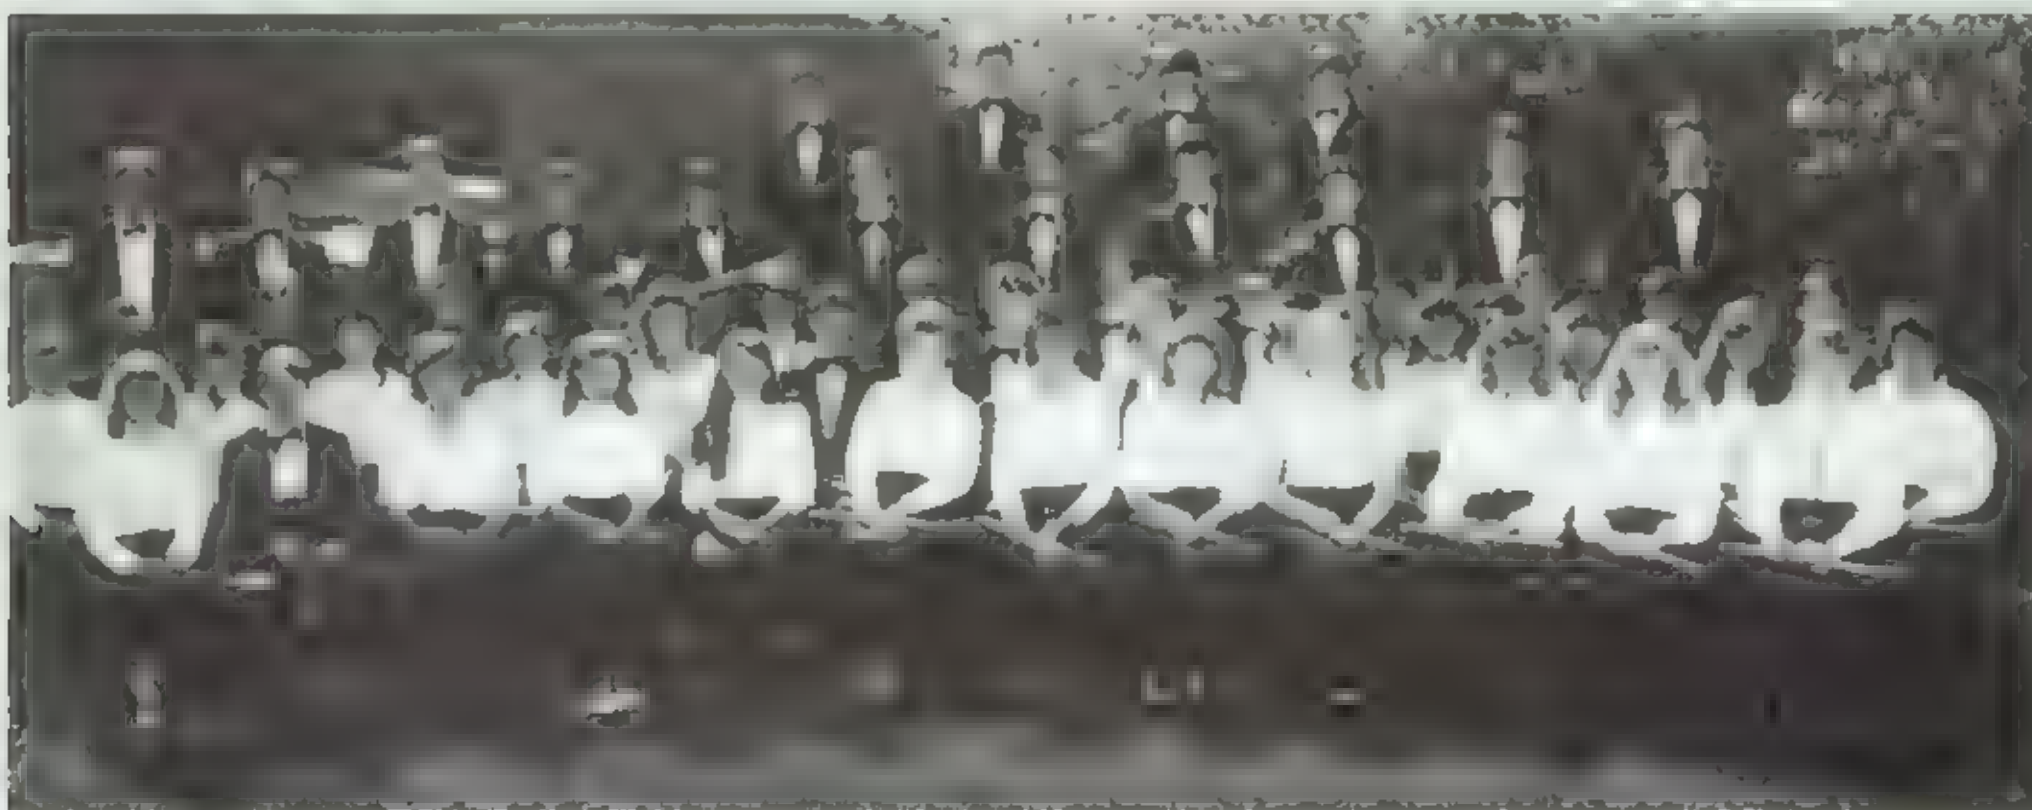

Freshman Band is a preparatory group with its members working hard to move up. The Freshman Band is more of a non-performing group which tries to spend their efforts on basic skills. "Fresh are really motivated to improve and to get into Concert Band," stated Mr. Mark Dievendorf, instructor of the band. Mr. Dievendorf says that he enjoys working with this group of people. In addition to polishing their playing skills, they learn the basics of marching so they can participate in the Marching Band in the future and stay in step.

STRONG YEAR FOR CONCERT BAND

Concert Band excelled in great performances this year. They participated in the Winter Concert, Spring Concerts and band festivals to show off what they had learned during their year of practice and study. "This year's Concert Band tackled some difficult literature and was extremely successful with it," stated Mr. Mark Dievendorff, director and instructor of the band. "I am very proud of them," he added.

Brian Small received the Best Instrumentalist Award, Dan DeLano was the Most Improved Player in the band, and Lisa Lowe won the Most Spirited Award

SYMPHONIC BAND

The 1987 Symphonic Band gave great performances. They were heard at the Montage Concert, Commencement, Festival '87, Winter Holiday Concert, and the MSBOA Band Festival. During the school year many special awards were distributed to some of East Kentwood's most talented musicians. The Outstanding Musician Award was given to Erik Nelson, Spirit Award to Helen Bradford, and the Most Improved to Lee Meekhof. Also, Shawn Christenson and Mark Werkema were honored with the John Phillip Sousa Band Award. The talented Mr. Mark Dievendort once again directed an extraordinary band!

BOYS GLEE NEW AND EXCITING

This year a new group was started for males only-Boys Glee. Mr. Ron Rogers was the director and led them to a very successful first year. They performed at various concerts throughout the year and added a spark to this year's Spring Pops Concert. "It was one of their best performances. They did a dynamite job and really proved their stuff," stated Mr. Rogers. This was great considering it was their first year. Groups such as Boys Glee give the student body something to look forward to in the years to come here at East Kentwood.

MADRIGALS TOPS IN THE STATE

This year's Madrigal group was once again very successful and had a very active year. They performed at various churches and The Kentwood Public Library and carolled both at Blodgett Hospital and at the Amway. They gave fine performances at Kentwood's Annual Montage Festival and at Festival 87 this spring. At the District competition, held at EKHS, they received a #1 top rating. This advanced them to the state level of competition where they also received a #1 rating making them one of the finest Madrigal groups in the area.

This choir showed great determination when they had to and were very competitive throughout the year along with help from their supportive director, Mr. Ron Rogers.

HONORS RAPS TO THE BEAT

This year's Honors Choir had an extremely active year. They performed at Western Michigan University, the Pops Concert, and East Kentwood's Christmas Concert. They performed very well at the District Festival, and also at Festival '87. They were also heard at East Kentwood's annual Montage Concert, doing a collection of numbers they had done throughout the year. Their director, Mr. Mark Webb, stated, "This was my first year directing the Honors Choir and I really enjoyed working with them." They did a fine job and performed very well.

FRIENDS FROM AROUND WORLD

East Kentwood was privileged to have eight exchange students visiting us from numerous areas around the world, such as Mexico, Costa Rica, Brazil, Denmark, Italy, Norway, Columbia, and Spain. We asked our friends what they liked or disliked about their stay, and their responses were as follows: Mauricio Cortes — "Blondes!" Felipe DeLorme — "I like the people and going skiing." Giulia Napoli — "I like school because you can choose your classes and have Saturdays off." Anita Stordal — "I like the music program, because we don't have one like it in Norway." Catalina Neira — "I like grapefruit; we don't have it in Columbia." Lene Iversen — "I like the brownies and the chocolate chip cookies!" Most of them said they loved the people they met but hated our cold Michigan weather. We hope our friends enjoyed their stay here at E.K., and we will miss them when they return home. Not pictured is Raquel Sanchez because she returned to Spain in January.

MODEL U.N. IMITATES REAL THING

Each day during first hour, Mr. Green's Model United Nation class went to the library to research. They would discuss world problems, pass resolutions and have mock trials. Model U.N. is an exact replica of the real U.N. except students instead of diplomats try to solve world problems. Each group of students is assigned a country and council, the highest of which is the Security Council which consists of the five super powers (U.S., U.K., France, China, U.S.S.R.) and ten guest member Nations selected on a random basis from the General Assembly. Each year Hope College holds a Model U.N. to help students learn how the United Nations works. Kevin Holland and Max Marquez took third place representing the United States Security Council. They also went to the Great Lakes Invitational (Glimun) for five days in Kalamazoo.

Representatives at the competition included the following: Aimee Storm, Accounting I; Kelli Rademacher, Accounting II; Jennifer Long, Business Math; Lymaire Abbott, Job Applications; Brian Crowell, Sales Presentations; Lisa Fowler, Transcription; Grace Agrusa, Typewriting Speed I; and Tracie Pattison, Typewriting Speed and Production II.

J.V. FOOTBALL HAS A "SUCCESSFUL SEASON"

This year's J.V. Football Team had a really good season. Their record was 6-3, which put them in third place in conference.

According to Coach Jeff Black, the best game was against the Muskegon Little Reds because "they were a very strong and powerful team with great speed and we defeated them in a hard hitting game."

Offensively, the team had great performances by running backs D.J. Reid, Karl Taylor, Marlon Bobers and York Tardy. Quarterback Kevin Henry did a fine job for the team by demonstrating good running and throwing skills along with great leadership. Receiving Kevin's passes was Dan Ruby, Ken Westra, and Kovid Kok. Defensively, the team only allowed 74 points against them for the entire season. The outstanding offensive line was Kyle Hayback, Grant Born, Rob Springer, Nathan Ruch, Chris Globig, Alex Zvirbulis, and Nick Zvirbulis.

The 1986-87 Varsity Cheerleaders had a fantastic year! With their new style and incredible enthusiasm, the year brought the team a number of competition trophies and uncountable victories for the teams which they cheered for. The football and basketball teams enjoyed many special extras created for them by the Varsity squad.

Coach Julie Friberg states, "This year was the most successful one I can recall due to the hard work, talent and dedication the girls involved. The extra time and work they put into their cheers and extra special things done for the teams really showed."

East Kentwood High School's Junior Varsity Cheerleading Squad, coached by Elaine Miller, showed a burst of enthusiasm throughout the fall and winter 1986-1987 sports seasons. They helped their Junior Varsity sports teams succeed with the spirit and pride they displayed. The squad also participated in a competition held at Rockford High School during the season and came home with the award for the Most Original Cheer and Dance. Overall, the group felt the season was quite a success.

POM POM GOES TO STATE

Coach Margo Saladino has nothing but praise for her girls this year. They started their 11-month season in June with plenty of enthusiasm; and before they knew it, the state competition was only a short time away. Along the road they picked up many trophies and a number of special honors, which included qualifying for nationals, a second-place at the Grand Valley Invitational, a first-place over-all and a first in originality at the West Catholic Invitational, a first-place in Regionals, and 13th in state. In addition to all of these honors, Michelle Fox, Michelle Pelka, Tracey Olmsted, and Sue Buitenhuis all made the NCA Traveling squad, and Michelle Pelka went on to perform at the Aloha Bowl in Hawaii.

To help the girls get on track, E.K. hosts the Michigan State Pom Pon squad's "MSU Motion." This year over 400 girls attended, coming from 27 different schools. Coach Margo Saladino attributes the team's success to the fact that early in the season the girls set their goals and worked hard to reach them. Team awards this year were as follows: Michelle Fox, Captain; Sophia Stapleton, MVP; Carrie Postema, MIP; and Michelle Pelka, Best All-Around.

GIRLS GOLF STROKES THROUGH SUCCESSFUL YEAR

The 1987 Girls Varsity Golf Team was undefeated in the OK Red Conference with a record of 18-0. Although the team was small, it proved to be mighty. The team consisted of five members including one Freshman, one Sophomore, one Junior, and two Seniors.

Jennifer Mieras was the lead player on the team and was voted All-Conference and All-State for the third year in a row. Close behind Jennifer was teammate Stacy Slobodnik.

Coach Ron Williams stated, "This is the best Girls Golf team ever assembled at E.K. We hope to carry on the tradition through the years and are hoping to see many new faces next year."

Jennifer swings in perfect form.

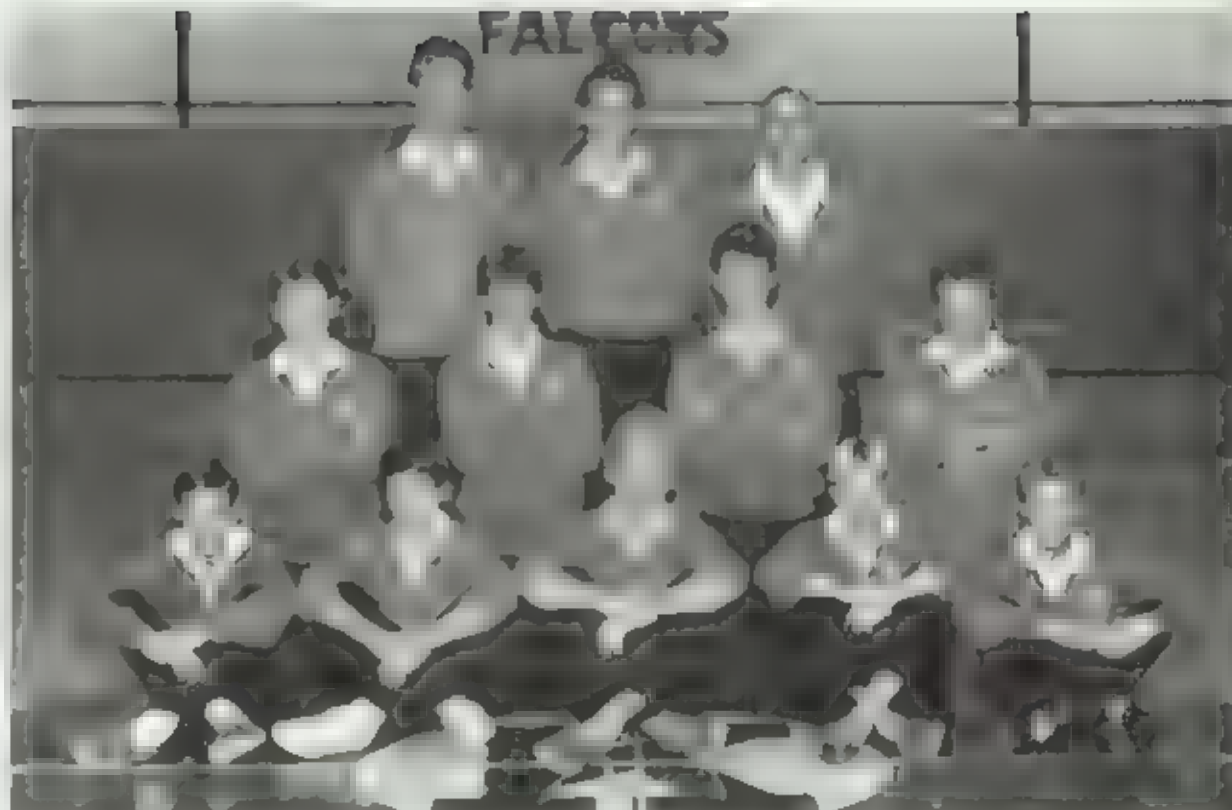

VARSITY GOLF SURFS THROUGH REBUILDING SEASON

The Boys' Varsity Golf Team, coached by Mr. Scott Crooks, was composed of many young players, so the season could be considered a rebuilding year. The team consisted of two freshmen, four sophomores and one senior, Pat Schaner. Coach Crooks stated, "For a young team, they acted and performed in a very mature manner."

Pat Schaner led the team and was named All Conference. The team finished fifth in the Regionals, nine strokes out of qualifying for the State Meet. Their overall record was 4-10.

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY LOOKING GOOD

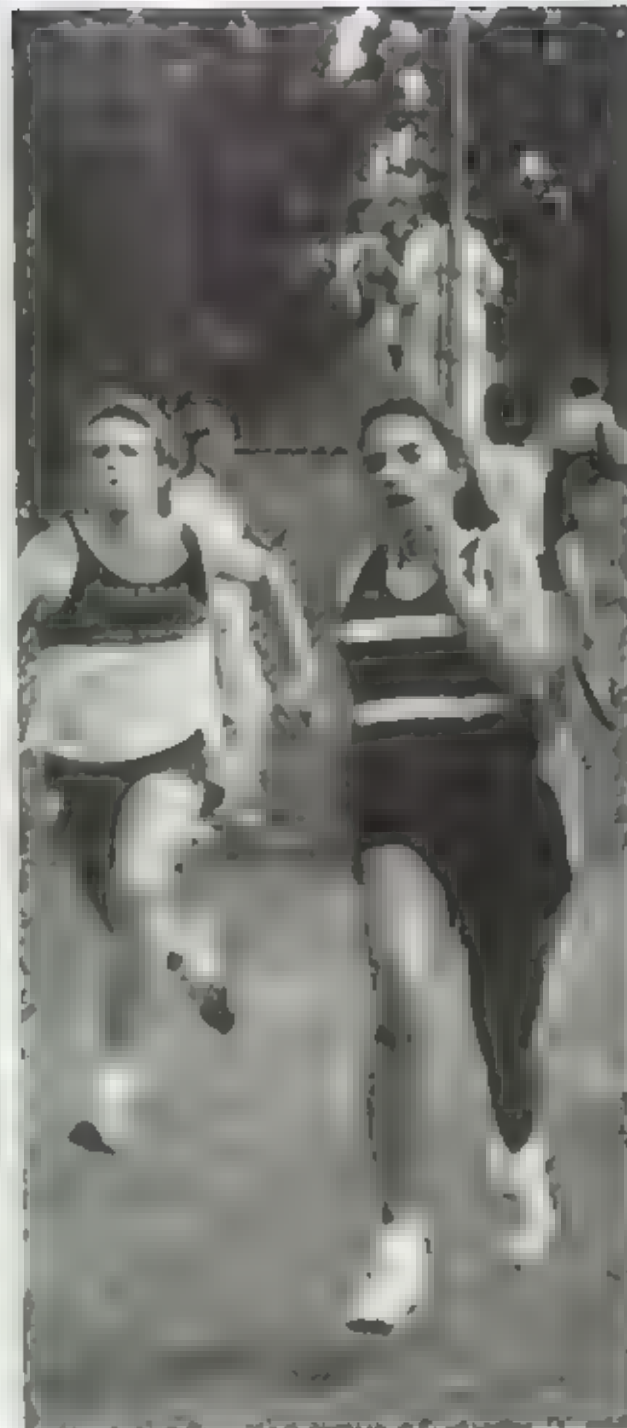

This year's Girls Cross Country Team was very successful this season. They had a very impressive record of 7-0 in duals meets and ended up winning the Conference Meet. They also did very well at the Regional Meet, placing fifth.

Three of the girls made All-Conference: Yvette Pierce (Captain), Kim Pierce, and Mary Whyatt, who also made All-State.

Considering all the injuries and viruses that went around, Coach Tom Begerow thought the team "hung in there to get the job done!"

BOYS CROSS COUNTRY FIGHTS FOR FINISH

This year's Boy's Cross Country team did not have the season they wanted. There was a great deal of sickness on the team. Their record was 4-3, but they tied for fourth in the Conference Meet. Co-Captain Dan Otto was the one team member who made Honorable Mention All-Conference. The other Co-Captain was Mark Katsanas. Considering the illness suffered by the team, Coach Tom Begerow thought they worked hard and gave it their best shot.

BOYS SWIM TEAM SPLASHES TO VICTORY

The 1986-1987 Boys Swim Team had a great season. Their record was 11-1 duals, and they placed third in the State Meet. Brian Meyer set a state and school record in the 50 free with a record of 20.88. There were also school records set in the Medley Relay (Keizer, Meyer, Du Hadway, Shawn Kingma)-1:37.13, 100 Breaststroke 58.90; 100 Backstroke (Todd Keizer) — 54.22 and the 500 Free with a time of 4:43.20 by Chris Becker.

The captains this year were Todd Keizer, Chris Becker and Matt Du Hadway. Brian Meyer and Todd Keizer were named Most Valuable Players. Most Improved honors went to Quang Hoang. State Swimmer of the year was Brian Meyer. Diving Coach of the year was Dave Follett.

Coach Jon Ambrose said, "We swam great and had only four seniors; so not only was this year great, but the future looks great!"

GIRLS SWIM TEAM SHINES AGAIN

The girls Swim Team didn't have much time for soaking up the sun this season. They were hard at work even before school began in September. Coach Tracy Maurer said, "Overall, the girls had a growing season mentally and physically, but they really believed in what they were doing."

The team's strong mental attitude kept them going, especially in their surprising victory over Rockford, according to Coach Maurer. Their record was 6-10. They came out three-in-three and took a second place in conference.

Team awards went to Deanna Fridley as Most Valuable Player, Beth Herre as Most Improved Player and Kari Andrews, who won the Coach's Award. Captains for this season were Tami Westra and Deanna Fridley. Next year's captains will be Tonya Cooley, Sara Sheerhorn and Tina Lodenstein.

"The purpose of the Junior Varsity program is a type of pre-training to get the JV players ready for Varsity ball," said Coach West. He also added, "If nothing else, they've learned how to win and that's a good start."

The Girls Varsity Soccer Team had a progressive season. The team had lots of talent, but lacked in experience. Their record was 2-15. "Throughout the season they showed much improvement, and always played well as a team," declared Coach Charlie Ziesmer. This year they worked more on conditioning their skills, because of the short season. At one point in the season they were playing six or seven games in one week. Season highlights included defeating Riverside Ontario 5-2 for the first time and also shutting out Flint Powers 4-0, which was the first shut-out they've allowed in two years. The overall record was 20-6, making them Class A Regional Champs for the seventh year in a row.

Kevin Boring, Dave Hansen, Tim Grzeszak and Scott Zuniga, the best defense players in the league, were a key part of the team's success this year, according to Coach Baum. Another valuable player was Ross Antonini, the leading scorer with 40 points.

SECOND YEAR FOR FRESH CHEERLEADERS

The freshman cheerleaders were again peppy, supportive, and proud of their team. It was a shaky start for the girls, because they had to learn to work with new people and adjust to their new school, but with the help of their coach, Mrs. Delynn Cox, they soon became a squad. They competed at the Greater Grand Rapids Cheerleading Competition with their original cheer and sideline chants, and they came home with an Honorable Mention. All of the girls are trying out again for next year, and there is word out that we may soon see boy cheerleaders out there with the girls, at least they are hoping.

FRESH BASKETBALL YEAR PERFECT

This year's Boys Freshman Basketball Team displayed great talent. They achieved an awesome record of 18 wins and only one loss. Coach Chip Henry commented, "At the beginning of the year, they had several things to work on; but by the conclusion of the season, they really had improved. They are a hard-working team." Each player joined forces with the others to achieve an outstanding year.

Two points for Mike Schuring.

This year's Freshman Baseball Team was a very "close-knit group". John Washburn (center field), Ryan Krauss (short stop and pitcher), and Goose Foster (pitcher, first base) were the key players. Their record this year was 12 and 7. The team was excellent on defense. They were very good at working together, because they interchanged ball players from one position to another. The players learned a great deal and are good Varsity prospects. Coach John Butler calls them the "Lunch Bunch" because they want to eat all the time. The coach commented, "The kids learned the fundamentals of baseball and how to control themselves on and off the baseball field as ball players." He had an enjoyable year with his "lunch bunch."

Their memory lives on

High school pays tribute to two young men

by ANDY DIEGERICH

On a day that was symbolically overcast, a memorial was dedicated last week at East Kentwood High School to the memory of two students who died last summer.

A pine tree and rock that eventually will have a plaque placed on it were dedicated last Friday to the memory of John Bates and Frank Curley, who would have been seniors at East Kentwood High School this year. A crowd of about 250 students, friends, and parents attended the dedication.

Making the large turnout special was the fact that Friday involved a half day of classes for students, and they were allowed to go home at 11 a.m. if they chose. The ceremony began at 11:20.

The rock was donated by Discount Tire Company, whose Kentwood location is located at 1645 44th Street. The tree was donated by the senior class.

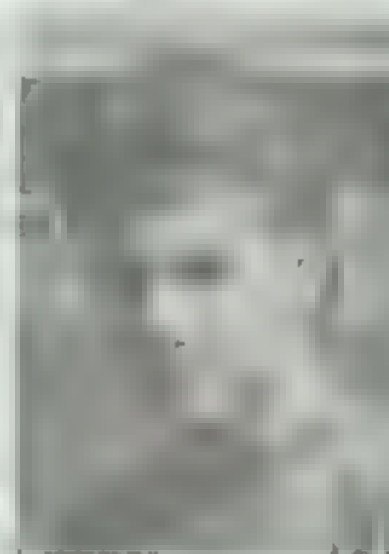

"It is very special for a school to choose this way to remember John and Frank," the Rev. Roger Shoup, minister at Central Reformed Church, told those who were assembled. "Most schools would do something in the school yearbook, or put up something else that is out of the way."

"But you chose something different, this tree on this place. Here we have a symbol of life, and even if it was torn down, its roots would bring new life."

Doug Giacomelli, student body president at East Kentwood, also addressed the crowd, saying that since "a tree will live much longer than most of us, we will have memories of John and Frank both. It's a symbol of how much we loved John and Frank."

Students wept openly after the ceremony, which was attended by John's parents, Gary and Karen Bates, and Frank's mother, Mary Curley.

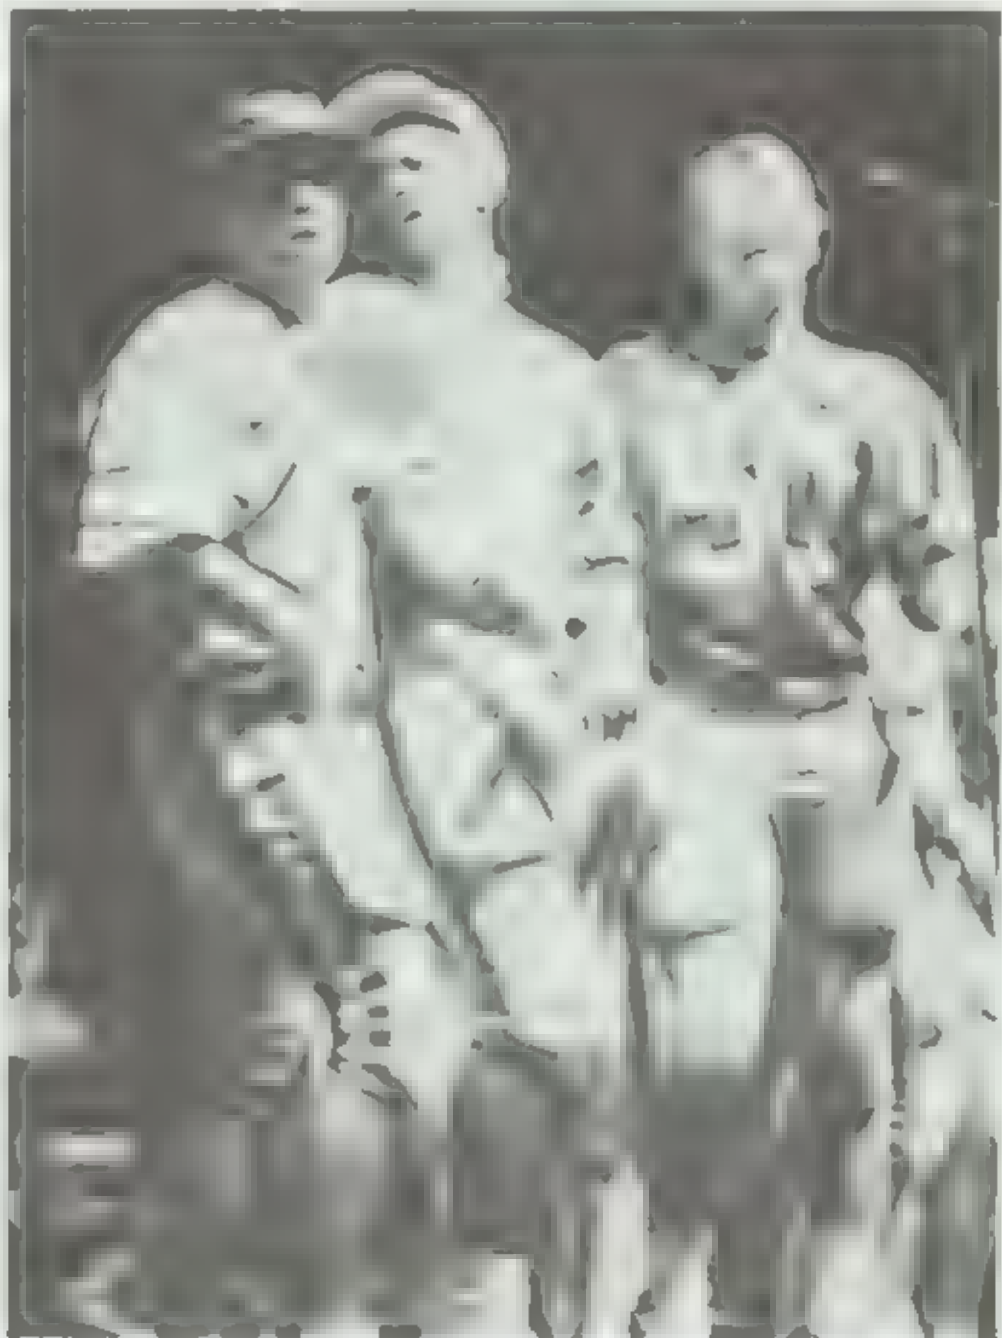

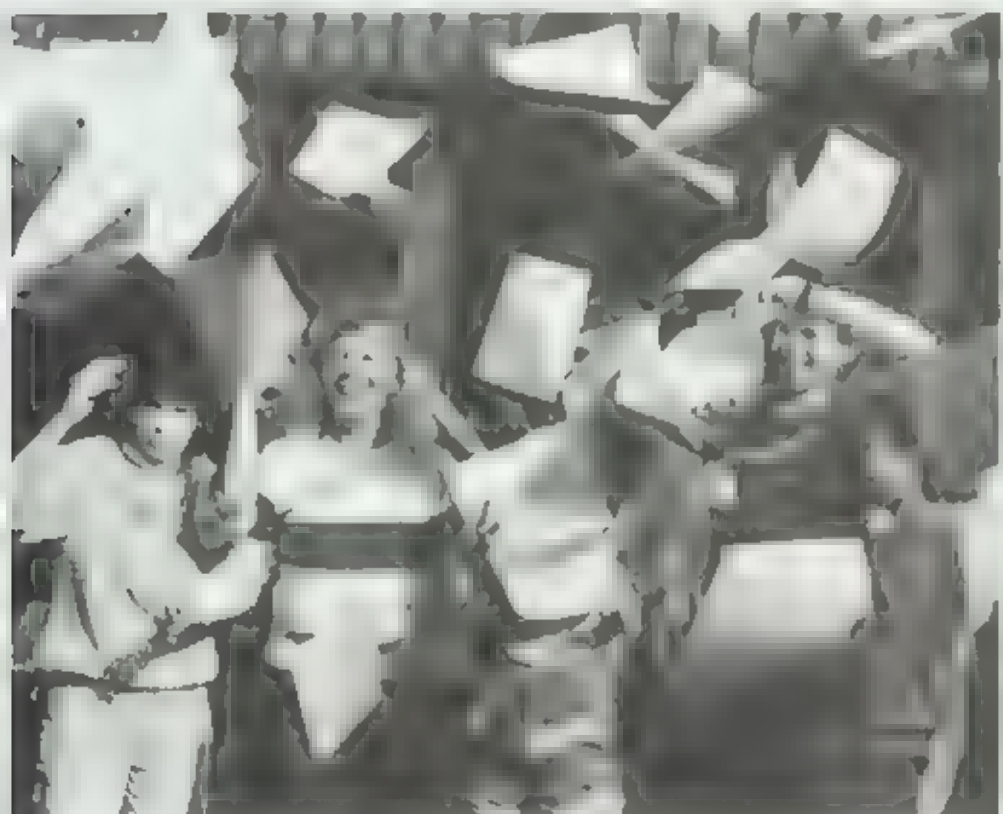

According to East Kentwood Assistant Principal John McGonigle, the idea for the memorial originated with members of the senior class. "The senior class expressed the original interest and came to the administration to recognize two students who are no longer with us," said McGonigle. "We discussed the options and decided a memorial would be appropriate."

The memorial is located in front of the freshman wing, at the west end of the High School.

PROM 1997-A TOTAL SPLASH

Prom this year was a great success. It was held in the Kent Room, of the Civic Center, downtown. This was where the enthusiastic young adults jammed to the awesome tunes, supplied by "Spice of Life". The couples danced, laughed, and walked along the Grand River under the moon-lit sky. The Prom's theme, "Stand by Me", created a fun-filled atmosphere for everyone!

SKYLINER YEARBOOK PRODUCTION CREDITS

The staff of the 1986-1987 East Kentwood High School Yearbook was a particularly good and dependable group. They made their deadlines better than most staffs have in the past, and much of this was due to the hard work of the editorial staff headed by Editor-in-Chief Ruth Workens. Photography, which is so essential to a good yearbook, suffered a little this year because of a relatively inexperienced group of photographers, including a freshman and a sophomore, but they gained experience throughout the year, and the improvement in picture quality was noticeable. However, what they lacked in experience and technique, they more than made up with in enthusiasm and dependability, getting out for all sorts of events to take pictures and spending many hours in the darkroom developing and printing pictures.

EDITOR IN CHIEF- Ruth Workens was a force behind the design and theme ideas and stepped in when staff members faltered to help them out.

SPORTS SECTION EDITOR — Ruth also functioned very effectively as the Sports Editor and is responsible for arranging the cartoon design of the pages in that section.

SENIOR SECTION EDITOR- Ruth also was responsible for the Senior Section with which she had quite a bit of help from other staff members, such as Christy Alterink, Karol Dodd, Wendy Cheff and Julie Chesnover.

JUNIOR SECTION EDITORS- Christy Alterink and Lene Iversen organized and produced this section.

FACULTY SECTION EDITOR- Tami Luaders spent many hours tracking down faculty members to arrange for new pictures and to get the latest information about them and arranging group pictures of the support staff. This was her second year on this

ACTIVITIES SECTION EDITOR- Brenda Lapekes did her best to get staff members moving on this section. Just about everybody on the staff contributed at least a page or two to its completion.

PHOTOGRAPHERS — The hard-working photographic staff that not only showed up for just about every school event of the year but also put in many long hours in the darkroom were Steve Johnson, an outstanding freshman who came from Mona Shores, Wendy LaMathe, a sophomore with loads of enthusiasm and energy, who specialized in printing pictures as well as taking them, and Laura Annis, a second-year staffer who contributed most of her time in the darkroom printing pictures with Wendy. Without this staff of photographers, there would be no yearbook.

BUSINESS MANAGER- Christy Alterink kept the books, paid the bills, billed the advertisers and generally supervised money matters in addition to all of her other work on the yearbook.

ADVERTISING MANAGER- Working closely with Christy was Karol Dodd who headed up most of the effort to sell advertising to local businesses. Most of the staff contributed to this effort by getting out and calling on the Kentwood area retailers and other businesses.

ART & DESIGN- Kelli Hallifax and Missie Van Til contributed most of the artwork, such as that on divider pages for the various sections.

OTHER ASSISTANCE- Many thanks go to those outside of the school staff and students, including Mr. Frank Kolenda for all of his group and team pictures and Mr. Robert Talsma, the representative for our publisher, Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas, whose help and technical advice is absolutely invaluable to the work of the yearbook staff.

Thank you all for a great job,

Dirk Nebbeling, Advisor
